Tebeau Gets In the Game-Heidrick's Sprinting and Hitting-Doctor Cuppy's Advice and Jack Powell's Irish Blood.

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Hot Springs, Ark, March 16.- Not even a very chilly substratum of Cape Name atmosphere could restrain Tebeau's ambitious colts this morning. The air was cutting but 9 a. m. found the entire bunch, save Mo-Gann, in uniform working for dear life. Burkett was out at 8 a. m., dragging his Worcester friend, Mr. Regno, along to pitch to him before the others came out.

When the crowd found them at the park Mr. Regan had his tongue out like a roughcoated St. Bernard on July 4, and Jesse was still at the bet calling on him to "put a little more speed on 'em." They were the first of their kind he had hit at since last October, but he was nathing them just the
